

IceDice is a fast-playing, easy-to-learn dice game with great press-your-luck action that'll keep you playing over and over again! Your goal is simple: collect three matching sets of pyramids. If the piece you roll is gone from the bank, you get to steal it from your opponent! Rules to a bonus game, Launchpad-23, are also included.

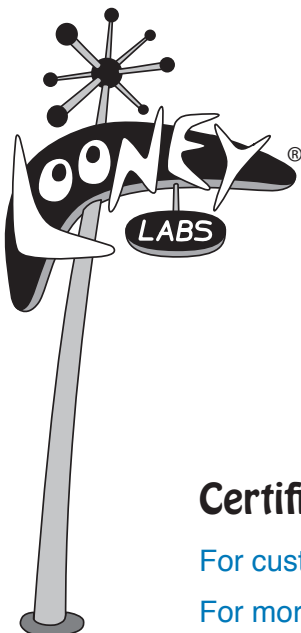

Treehouse is a fast, fun, easy-to-learn game for two to four players, winner of the Origins Award for Best Board Game of 2006. Your goal is to rearrange your pyramids to match the set in the center of the table, using only the moves you roll on the custom die. Rules to a bonus game, Pharaoh, are also included.

Pink Hijinks is an elegantly simple yet surprisingly deep strategy game for two players. The special die determines which piece(s) you get to move each turn. Will you be the first to fill your row with three of the same-sized pyramids?

IceDice is a great introduction to the Looney Pyramids game system. With all of the variants available, there is something with a style and complexity to satisfy most gamers, of any skill level.
